Current Comment

The life of a newspaper man is not always so hot, what with too much work, rotten hours and the continual strategems resorted to dodge our creditors. At the present time we have a cold—one of those cowardly colds. The kind that hits you and runs. And with all these afflictions we find it necessary to write the weekly column. Say, did you ever try to write a column or anything else, when your nose and eyes were entertaining a cowardly cold?

As far as that goes, the general public could probably stagger along alright if we dispensed with the column; but if we did dispense with it, what else would we put in its place? Nothing. Unless we used one of these radio bedtime stories. You've heard them, of course. They usually wind up something like this: "And so it came to pass that the great big, bloody-mouthed dragon devoured the little princess with a tremendous crunching of bones. The devoted subjects of the princess trembled with terror at the gruesome sight—Good night, little radio friends; pleasant dreams!"

A fat chance for pleasant dreams after hearing that, eh?

So we have to write the column anyway. The ball-and-chain suggested that we take a rap at the traffic situation as it is wrapped up in the big trucks that hurtle daily down Campbell avenue. Not a bad idea, at that.

Some of these truck drivers must be blind in both eyes. Apparently Campbell looks to them like nothing but a wide place in the highway, and that is not so good. There is considerable counter-traffic, to say nothing of the people who, from time to time, desire to cross the main street. The aforementioned trucks are more or less like locomotives in that they cannot be brought to an immediate stop. The lives of local people are imperiled to a considerable extent by these rapidly-moving trucks, and something should be done about it.

An interview with one of the offending drivers would probably reveal the fact that he wasn't aware of the presence of a town, and further, that if he was aware of it, it would make practically no difference anyway. He would probably suggest that the entire town be moved to the north side of Campbell avenue, thus doing away with the present necessity of crossing the street.

The town was here before the trucks, however, and we shouldn't allow them to get away with anything like that. Although they have a pretty good chance to give us a rimming until such time as the people incorporate the town and provide for the arrest and punishment of those who now use Campbell's main street for a race track. How about it?

That's all.

STEPHEN MERRILL TO GO EAST AS AUDITION WINNER

Fellow townspeople are rejoicing with Stephen Merrill in his victory over other contestants in the far western district of the national Atwater-Kent radio audition, recently held in San Francisco.

Stephen Merrill

Close upon the heels of the preliminary contest held in San Jose, young Steve sang his way into the "big time" at San Francisco two weeks ago. At that time Merrill encountered keen competition, but those listening in at Campbell entertained small doubt for his success.

Victory at the district audition entitled the winner to appear in the national competition in the east, the winners of that major contest to be awarded a substantial cash sum and a period of study in Europe.

Stephen, accompanied by his father, Dr. W. I. Merrill, will leave Saturday for the east. They, together with all other competitors, will be banquet guests of President Herbert Hoover at Washington.

The young Campbell songster was today tendered a "good luck" luncheon by the local Kiwanis club. He was presented on this occasion with a walrus-hide traveling case, a gesture of esteem on the part of the music-loving Kiwanians.

A Community farewell celebration in honor of Stephen Merrill will be held in the high school annex Thursday evening. Stephen leaves Saturday, accompanied by his father, for New York to compete for highest honors in the audition and the proud Campbellites are banding together to wish him success.

The entertainment is sponsored. by the Chamber of Commerce with Herbert Shadle, chairman of the arrangement committee.

There is to be a good program with T. A. Cutting, president of the Chamber of Commerce, in charge. There will be several speakers, among them being C. H. Whitman for the Kiwanis Club; S. N. Hedegard for the Grange; the pastors of the local churches, Rev. A. S. Buell and Rev. J. H. Bennett; D. H. Cramer of the high school and I. R. Abbott of the grammar school. The high school orchestra, directed by A. A. Thielke will furnish the furnish the music.

Several other features, plans being incomplete as we go to press, will also be included in the program.

Everyone is invited to give Stephen Merrill the proper send off and wish him success.

CAMPBELL LOSES TO SAN JOSE MOOSE

In a sensational game on the Campbell diamond Sunday the local ball team was handed a no-tally lose by the San Jose Moose—the first time in the club's history that such a thing has come to pass.

It was a pitching battle between Athenour for Campbell, who allowed only six hits, and Sax for the Moose, who allowed but three hits and struck out ten men.

All of the Moose runs were made on hits, the first in the second frame, the second in the third on two hits, and the third in the eighth on a hit. It was anybody's ball game until the last man was up.

P. T. A. Meeting Today

MAZZONE CASE BOUND OVER TO DISTRICT COURT

Rocco and Rosie Mazzone, charged with criminal libel by Sheriff George Lyle, faced preliminary examination here this Monday afternoon before the court of Judge John D. Blaine at the Odd Fellows' Hall.

The affidavit, the cause for the charge, stated that Lyle had received money from the Mazzones in exchange for protection. Very little evidence was produced by Attorney Frank J. Waterhouse, who is representing Sheriff Lyle.

Mr. and Mrs. Mazzone were not called to testify but E. H. Lowell, blacksmith was, testifying that he saw the Mazzone's attach their signature to the affidavit.

Sheriff Lyle, when placed on the stand, denied that he had asked for or received any money from the Mazzone's. Lyle denied all charges.

Elmer D. Jensen is defending Mr. and Mrs. Mazzone. Further action will take place in the Superior Court. Mr. and Mrs. Mazzone are out on bail set at $2000 and not changed by this examination.

NEW SIGNS LIGHT UP CAMPBELL'S BUSINESS DISTRICT

Campbell is sporting a great white way nowadays, what with the electric signs of the various business houses etc. One of the recent additions was that of an illuminated sign on the Busy Bee.

This week there has been another installation. Druggist Herbert Shadle and A. J. Robins of the Rainbow fountain have evidently co-operated in the erection of an electric sign bearing the words 'drugs' and 'soda.' These signs all help to make up what we lack in street lights and give the passer-by the impression of a live town.

Cat Rescued from Telephone Pole

Wednesday last a cat sought security on a telephone pole after a spirited game of tag with a number of dogs. The pole, on Campbell avenue near First street, harbored the cat safely enough—in fact, the feline was unable, or too scared to descend. It kept to its perch all Wednesday night, and was still there Thursday morning when it was rescued by Al Gosney.

THE SPORT FORUM
By DICK LYNDEN

A hamlet and a half of football fanatics greeted the West's big charity show last Saturday and cheered and moaned and sighed a thrilling but puny background to one of the season's most brilliant intersectional classics. With only ten minutes of the final period remaining, and the score standing at seven up, Stanford paraded through Dartmouth's forward company for sixty yards in a drive which culminated beyond the goal line when Caglieri, the waddling wop, nudged right tackle for seventeen yards and a touchdown. Gray sub tackle, converted from placement.

The early indicatiois of the game were toward a Stanford carnage, a score (declared illegal) creating bedlam in the first five minutes, but shortly afterward the Hanover eleven settled down and the imminent debacle was indefinitely postponed. In the middle of the second quarter Stanford rushed over its initial genuine score, Rothert rapping left tackle for ten yeards and a touchdown to complete an unerring advance from midefield. Dartmouth retaliated just before the respite when Johns,on, chunky fullback nabbed one of Rothert's looping passes and scuddled fifteen yards to the Card 22-yd. line. Morton, with the assistance of Herb Dana, plunged over from there to knot the count.

Chuck Erhorn, who stands at six-four unshod, came into his own last Saturday, and with no Ted Beckett to filch the plaudits, gained the recognition of the crowd as the outstanding lineman on the field. In the Big Game Erhorn was the "behemoth of the defense" (Pop's own words). but against Dartmouth he was the superlative.

He made more tackles than all the Stanford forwards collectively, he worried the passer throughout, playing no trifling role in the frustration of Dartmouth's strong aerial attack, and to climax a magnif-tack, and to climax a magnificent day, bowled over two Caglieri's dash that won the ball game.

Marchmont Schwartz, with Brill and Carideo supporting, whirled off tackle on a cut-back to sprint through fifty-four yards of muck and slime for a touchdown, which Carideo converted, and Notre Dame downed the Army 7-6 after three periods of scoreless football. Army blocked a kick shortly after Swartz's hasty gesture and Trice flopped on it for a touchdown, but the entire Irish line broke in to smear the try for point. More than 100,000 spectators saw the Cadets in their first defeat of the season.

That mightiest of all western teams, U. S. C., meets the supreme test next Saturday when Notre Dame, declared by eastern critics to be the besteleven in the United States, clashes with them in Coliseum. Despite the fact that Washington State beat

"Political Bonds With Our Southern Neighbors" Is Club's Topic

Dressed with sprays of pine needles and toyon berries the community room presented a holiday aspect when the Country Womens Club assembled for its meeting Monday.

At the business session notice was given of the County Federation meeting with We and Our Neighbors Club at Union Club House. Friday Luncheon at 12:30, reservations to be made at once, 75 cents. Dr. Mariana Bertola to be the speaker in the afternoon.

The yearly $10 was voted for the Christmas festivities for the Veterans Hospitals at Palo Alto.

The program comittee, Miss A. E. Denton, Mrs. Geo. W. Page and Mrs. Lillie F. Shaw had secured. Mrs. Grenville Pettis of Los Gatos to speak on the topic for the day. "Political Bonds With our Southern Neighbors."

Mrs. Pettis has long been a deep student of international relations with the main purpose of advancing world peace thru an understanding of its peoples.

She gave and interesting and instructive outline of the conditions exsisting between Mexico and the United States before President Coolidge's administration; and the great changes brought about thru the wise and understanding policy of Ambassador Dwight Morrow. The life he and his family lived among the Mexican people and his attitiude of trust and sympathetic understanding of the people and their problems has almost revolutionized the feeling of that nation toward the U. S.

There are many problems that will need wise and careful consideration to maintain these pleasant relations—the restriction of immigration; tariffs on Mexican products (tomatoes, peas, and etc.) but it is up to us to aid and incourage their efforts at self improvement.

Mrs. Shaw briefly quoted from an article on the new phase of education being fostered by the government; teaching the rural population the art of living and raising those standards before attempting much of mental culture.

Harry Smith, Carl Field, Jem Dempsey and Roy Archibald were among the local fans who attended the Stanford-Dartmouth game at Palo Alto Saturday.

"DAD" FAWCETT

We know Dad Fawcett, so do you;
So do a host of others, too;
He mends our chairs and hangs our doors
And takes the mars from off our floors.
He lifts our antiques from disgrace
And puts them in their proper place.
He leaves his welcome latch-string out;
No need to ring or knock or shout.
And then he greets us with a smile
Unless distracted for the while
By careful work he has in hand—
Perchance a piece from foreign land.
He makes things new more than he mends;
He seldom borrows, sometimes lends;
As benefactor of our town
He merits localized renown.
Thanks be for "Dad" we reverent say
On this Thanksgiving, natal day;
Here's to his health and bless his heart,
We murmur as the guests depart.
—Mary Maxson Lanphear.

the Trojans 7-6 earlier in the year, it is generally conceded that this contest will decide the supremacy of the nation. The Trojans should score three touchdowns and Notre Dame one or two.

The Turkey Day racing card at Tanforan, which listed eight major races, caused somewhat of an explosion when all the favorites ate mud clear through the card. Big Joke, supposedly just another dray-horse, slipped under the wire paying 20-1, while the favorite finished at the eighth post in one of the lesser upsets. Roodles went the post at 6-5, covered with all the wise money, and staggered home with mud in its eyes. Etc., etc. You'd think those boys would give up after a while.

IDEAL GIFT FOR THE BOY

What glorious adventures boys between the ages of ten and twenty have reading THE AMERICAN BOY—YOUTH'S COMPANION! As if by magic, this well-known magazine carries boys to distant parts of the world, introduces them to strange people, lets them experience quer customs and revel in the adventures of foreign lands.

In a single issue, a boy will battle the frozen Northland with sled and dog team, cross Indian-haunted plains in a prairie schooner, zoom over war-torn lands in an army plane or on dangerous routes with a U. S. mail pilot, hunt wild animals in Africa atop the swaying back of an elephant, go cruising in a battleship, fight Arab raiders with the Foreign Legion and participate in many other thrilling experiences that come to readers of THE AMEICAN BOY—YOUTH'S COMPANION.

It is such experience as these that sharpen a boy's wits, kindle his imagination, strengthen his character, develop his understanding of the world in which he lives and of the people that inhabit it. Here, indeed, is the ideal gift for that boy in whom you are interested—that son, nephew, cousin, neighbor, or, perhaps, the son of a business associate. An attractive gift card bearing your name will be sent to the boy if you request it with your order. Then every time the mailman brings the magazine to his door, the boy will think of you gratefully.

Subscription prices are only $2.00 for one year and $3.00 for three years. Mail your order direct to THE AMERICA BOY—YOUTH'S COMPANION, 550 W. Lafayette Blvd., Detroit, Michigan, Service on your subscription will start with whichever issue you specify.

School Notes

Full preparations are under way for the girls' jinks to be given next Friday night in the girls' gym. The jinks will take the form of a "kid party." All members of the girls league and their parents are invited.

The 110 and 120 teams took a double defeat from the Santa Clara boys. The scores were 21-12 for the 110's and 16-10 in the 120's game. This was the last 110 and 120 pounders' games, and it also decided the championship.

Friday, Dec. 5, the 130's and the unlimiteds will play the Palo Alto teams at Palo Alto.

All of the high school students are proud that one of our alumni won the Atwater-Kent audition. We are all looking forward to the entertainment to be held in our annex Thursday night.

KIWANIS NOTES

Mr. A. H. Horrell, assistant superintendent of San Jose schools as speaker at Kiwanis luncheon today gave a very interesting story of the changes in educational ideas and methods. Thes changes are keeping abreast of the times which are changes in so many other walks of life. Today education is given to bring about a broader and fuller life by teaching the ideas that are more nearly the part of living.

Why should the grade pupil be discouraged by compound interest and partial fragments when they are so rarely needstitutions where all such problems are figured out by the banking equipment?

Geographic science is made more interesting by taking the things close at hand and generally understood rather than out-of-the-way places and things of little personal interest.

Stephen Merrill, winner of the western states audition and pride of Campbell community, was the honor guest. As a mark of appreciation and best wishes for his trip and coming contest, he was presented with an elegant leather case fitted with a traveller's toilet set.

No need to ask:
"Is the water hot?"

"WHAT a sight! Go get cleaned up this minute," Mrs. Jones used to say when Sonny came in from football. Soon from the bathroom would come a triumphant announcement: "Can't bathe. Water's cold." But since the Crane Automatic Water Heater was installed, Sonny's lost his alibi. Indeed, he actually seems to like his health-giving shower after play. Which is one more daily difficulty off Mother's hands.

Let us demonstrate how conveniently, unfailingly, and economically, this new electric or gas heater keeps plentiful hot water waiting.
